A Bill,

For the relief of Edward Toppan, William Currier, and George Jenkins.

1 Sec. 1. BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of
2 the United States of America, in congress assembled, That the col-
3 lector of the customs for the district of Newburyport, in the state
4 of Massachusetts, shall be, and he hereby is authorized and direct-
5 ed to allow to Edward Toppan, William Currier, and George Jen-6 kins, the drawback of duties upon merchandise exported from the 7 said port to New-Orleans, in the brig Five Sisters, amount-
8 ing to six hundred seventy-two dollars and thirty-nine cents, agree-9 able to a debenture certificate issued by the said collector, on the 10 6th day of December, in the year 1803: Provided, the inward du-11 ties on the said merchandise shall have been first paid, and that 12 it shall appear to the satisfaction of the collector that the merchan-
13 dise was actually landed in New-Orleans.
